Essential Knowledge – History

I know that Ancient Rome expanded gradually from 753 BC until it peaked around AD 100. I know it declined from 3rd century until collapse in AD 476. I know Roman citizens were plebeians or patricians. I know that slavery is a system where people are owned by other people and enslaved people are forced to work for no money. I know that roman enslaved people were the poorest people in society or prisoners of war. Roman slavery was not based on race or ethnicity. I know that Ancient Rome was governed by kings, a republic, a dictatorship, one empire and then two empires. I know the imperial cult elevated emperors to having a god status.
