Essential Knowledge – History

To know that a city-state is a city and the surrounding land that has its own government and identity. A government is the system or people who rule a place. A civilisation is a group of people and their society, culture and way of life. To know Ancient Greece was not an empire, but was made of lots of city-states like Athens and Sparta. Ancient Greeks used skills in architecture to build temples to honour their gods. The ancient Greeks believed in multiple gods and wrote myths.
